

INDUSTRIAL SCALE FURNACES

FRIT FURNACE

A frit is produced by melting raw materials in the form of powder or granules by mixing them in a fairly homogeneous manner.

Melting process is carried out in these furnaces at temperatures of about 1000-1600°C.

Frit furnaces are available in wide a ranges of volumes from 0.1 liter to 500 litres and temperatures up to 1600°C continuous use.

- Melting pot integrated to furnace
- Water tank and protective barrier
- Manual feeding system
- Optional features: Automatic feeding system

1600°C
Capacity per day: 5 Lt

